

SOUTHLAND MAPLE BEECH

Indigenous to New Zealand, Southland Maple Beech is an excellent choice for interior feature linings, joinery and flooring.

Its beauty is intertwined with the history of New Zealand's landless natives and is a source of architectural inspiration for projects wishing to claim authenticity and create culturally sensitive, iconic residential and commercial buildings.

- Interior timber
- Wall, ceiling & flooring applications
- Standard profiles & project-specific profiles
- Clean grade, rustic grade & customisable grades
- Lengths: 1.2m – 4.2m (heavy 2.1m – 3.0m)
- Indigenous New Zealand Timber
- 100% FSC Certified
- New Zealand grown & milled
- Easily accepts coatings
- Factory Coating available
- Recommended Coating: Osmo, Dryden
- Interior Panelling & Sarking, Joinery, Flooring, Battens

enquiries@timberline.co.nz | 0508 337 446
www.timberline.co.nz